

Overseas Relocation Grant Teacher Reimbursement Application Form

The Overseas Relocation Grant (ORG) is available for recruitment of qualified overseas teachers (both New Zealand trained and overseas trained) who are registered and certificated by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.

Eligibility criteria

You must be registered and certified by the Teaching Council of New Zealand

Your role must be starting between 1 July 2024 and 30 June 2025 and your contract must be at least 12 months in a:

- › State or state-integrated school (excluding independent schools).
- › Licensed early learning centre.

Any overseas teacher must not have been teaching in a NZ school or licensed early learning service for the 12 months prior to their start date.

If a school, kura or early learning centre is bringing in an overseas teacher under the Border Exception programme, the teacher will not be eligible for the ORG.

Places will be allocated evenly across each of the categories above on a “first come, first served basis” until the allocation is spent. We will be monitoring allocations closely and we will inform the sector as soon as allocations have been exhausted.

Supporting documentation

You must have the following before filling out this form:

- › A signed and dated copy of your employment contract
- › Evidence of expenditure for all actual and reasonable costs. This must be evidenced by a tax invoice or receipt. Eligible relocation expenses can be found on the IRD website here: Eligible relocation expenses \(ird.govt.nz\)

There are further tips on page 3 about what kind of expenses will and will not be accepted.

- › Certified copy of a bank statement that includes your bank account number and postal address.
