

Initial Teacher Education Programmes (ITE) that can be completed in two years

Two-year ITE programmes

There are various ITE programmes for those wanting to apply for a Kaupapa Māori | Māori Medium Employment-Based Initial Teacher Education (EBITE) Programme Funding Award. This award supports those working under a Limited Authority to Teach (LAT holders) to train as a teacher while employed at their school | kura. They must study an ITE programme that can be completed in two years.

The table below shows options for two-year ITE programmes that are graduate or postgraduate diplomas. We encourage schools | kura and LAT holders to review all suitable programmes to select the right programme for them.

Recognised Prior Learning (RPL)

Some three-year programmes, such as undergraduate degrees may allow entry into the second year by recognising your prior learning, skills or experience as equivalent to those taught in a formal education setting for the purposes of awarding credit toward a qualification.

Learn more about RPL on the NZQA website: Recognition of learning for credit - NZQA

ITE Programme Finder Tool

Use the ITE Programme Finder Tool to explore more programmes that lead to teacher registration.
