

SOTP providers and programmes (2027)

October 2026

The School Onsite Training Programme (SOTP) supports people training to become teachers through a school-based study and practical teaching experience.

If you are interested in becoming a host school or kura

Contact your preferred Initial Teacher Education (ITE) provider from the list of SOTP approved providers to discuss hosting a student teacher or supporting people from your community to train as a teacher.

If you are interested in becoming a teacher

To apply for a place on an SOTP Initial Teacher Education (ITE) programme, you need to decide which ITE provider you would like to study with and apply through their application process.

All ITE providers offering SOTP places, and their contact details and programmes are listed below.
